

I'M A CULTURE KEEPER!

You explored, learned, and kept
Cayman's culture alive this summer. We're proud of you!

Passport Presented by the
Cayman National Cultural Foundation, cncf@artscayman.org

Passport Design by
Visual Paradise Studio, hello@visualparadisestudio.com

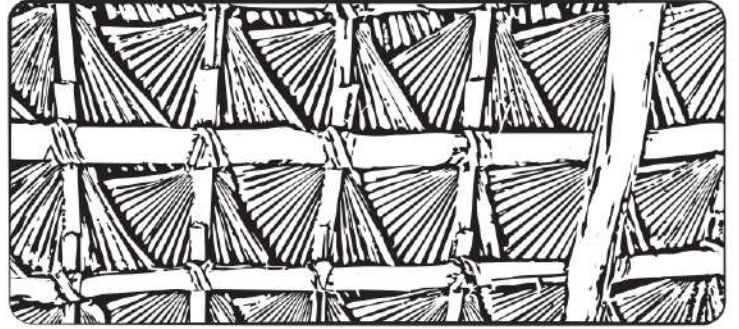

CULTURE KEEPERS SUMMER PASSPORT

This book belongs to:

 Answer the question below.

How long do blue iguanas live?

 Colour the pattern on the roof.

 Iguana Adventure!

Draw a path or map showing your adventure for the day!

Queen Elizabeth II Botanic Park
Open 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Last admission at 4:30 p.m.
North Side, Grand Cayman, Cayman Islands

QUEEN ELIZABETH II BOTANIC PARK

The Botanic Park is a beautiful place where you can explore Cayman's native plants, flowers, and wildlife. It's also home to the rare and colourful Blue Iguana – found only in the Cayman Islands!

Answer the question below.

What colour are the blue iguanas eyes?

Tel: 345-947-9462 Email: info@botanic-park.ky

Culture Keepers User Guide

To create the book:

- You will need:
 - Glue or staples
- Print double sided.
- Select flip on short edge.
- Fold pages along the middle line.
- Glue or staple pages together.
- Be sure to check organization's address and opening times before venturing out. This can be found at the bottom of each activity page.
- Go to at least 4 cultural sites and fill out the activity pages.
- Remember to collect your stamp (or have staff sign) before you leave each site!

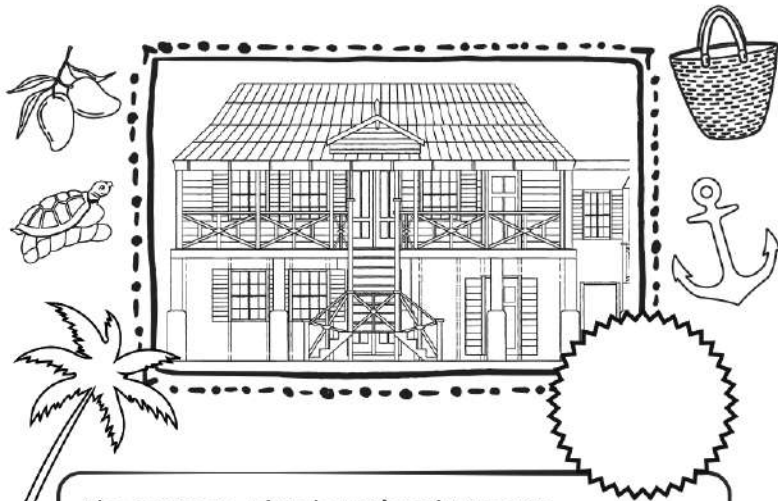

COMPLETED ALL ACTIVITY PAGES? Call 949-5477 and come to the CNCF offices to receive your CNCF Swag Bag, Culture Keepers Pin and special photo opp!

IMPORTANT

- The Culture keepers summer passport programme runs from July 7th through August 29th 2026.
- All participating organizations retain the right to refuse entry in accordance with their own rules and regulations.
- Most Important: Have tons of fun!

Cayman National Cultural Foundation
Open Monday to Friday, 9:00AM - 5:00PM
F.3, Harquail Cultural Centre, the smaller building, 2nd floor, 17 Harquail Drive

CAYMAN ISLANDS NATIONAL MUSEUM

The Cayman Islands National Museum, through its exciting programs, connects us to our past. The museum makes sure that everyone can explore the unique features and history of our beautiful islands.

Answer the question below.

The Cayman trench is VERY deep! Can you guess how deep? _____

Tel: 345-949-8368 Email: info@museum.ky
Admission is free for residents of the Cayman Islands on Saturdays.

Answer the question below.

Why do turtles come to the beach?

Habitat Hunt

Where do turtles live?
Circle the ones that are correct.

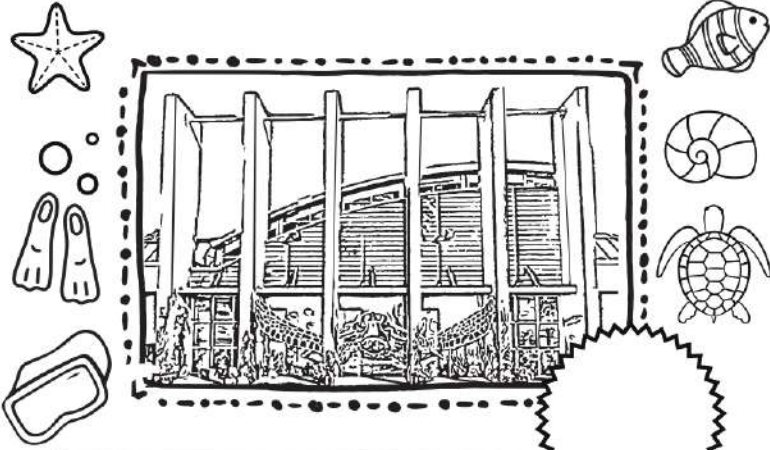

- Coral Reef
- Jungle
- Open Ocean
- Beach
- Sky

Colour Shellby and friends!

Cayman Turtle Centre Island Wildlife Encounter
Open 7 days a week, 8 am - 5 pm (last entry at 4:30 pm)
788 Northwest Point Road, West Bay, Cayman Islands

CAYMAN TURTLE CENTRE

The Cayman Turtle Centre provides a unique experience where you have the opportunity to see Green sea turtles at every stage of their life cycle, from egg to fully matured adult.

Turtle Fact Match

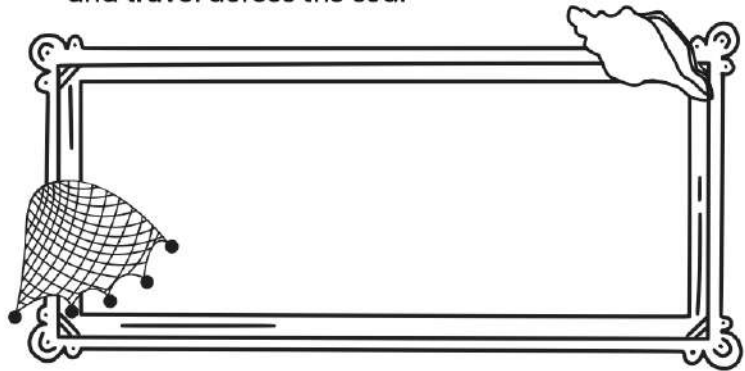

Draw a line to match the turtle to the fact.

- | | |
|-------------------------|------------------------------------|
| Green Sea Turtle | Has a big, strong jaw for crushing |
| Loggerhead | Helps coral reefs by eating |
| Hawksbill | Eats mostly seagrass and algae |

Tel: 345-949-3894 Email: info@turtle.ky

Draw Your Own Catboat!

Catboats were used long ago in Cayman to fish and travel across the sea.

I Spy

How many of these can you find during your visit?

True or False

Circle the correct answer.

The Old Courts Building (now home to the Cayman Islands National Museum), is the oldest standing public building in Grand Cayman.

TRUE FALSE

Cayman Islands National Museum
Open Monday to Friday, 9am to 5pm | Saturdays, 10am to 5pm
64 Seafarers Way, George Town, George Town, Cayman Islands

THE NATIONAL GALLERY OF THE CAYMAN ISLANDS

On the 2nd floor of the National Gallery, you will find the National Collection; these important artworks explore Cayman's story through the eyes of artists! You will find traditional art such as silver thatch baskets and rope, and newer types of art such as abstract painting and sculpture.

Art Detective

Can you spot these in the main gallery?

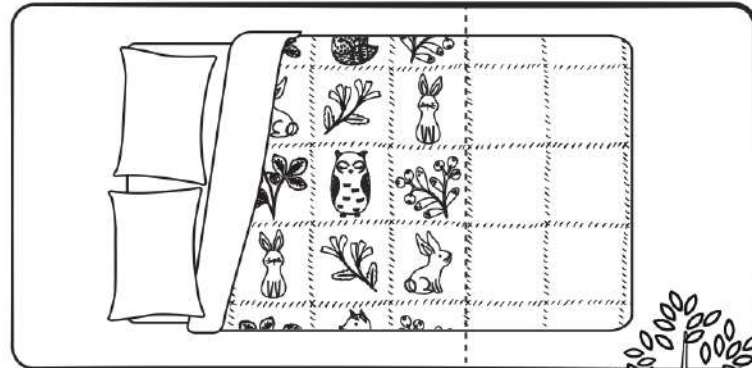

- A painting with a boat
- Something made of wood
- A photo in black and white

Tel: 345-945-8111 Email: info@nationalgallery.org.ky

 Draw your own old-time toy! What do you think children long ago played with in the Mission House?

 Complete the pattern on the quilt.

 Answer the question below.

Why was the mission house important?

Please read the sign by the parking area.

National Trust for the Cayman Islands, Mission House
Open Friday and Saturday, 10AM - 2PM
Mission House, Gun Square Road, Bodden Town, Cayman Islands

NATIONAL TRUST CAYMAN ISLANDS MISSION HOUSE

The National Trust for the Cayman Islands preserves natural environments and places of historic significance. This includes the Mission House which is one of the oldest house sites in Cayman.

Circle the items that were found in the Mission House a long time ago.

Tel: 345-749-1121 Email: info@nationaltrust.org.ky

Gallery Sketch

Draw your favourite art piece below.

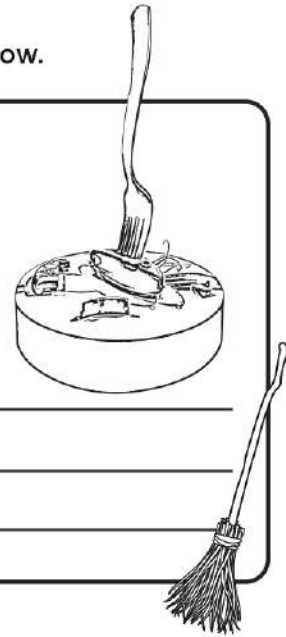

Find

your way through the labyrinth in the sculpture gardens.

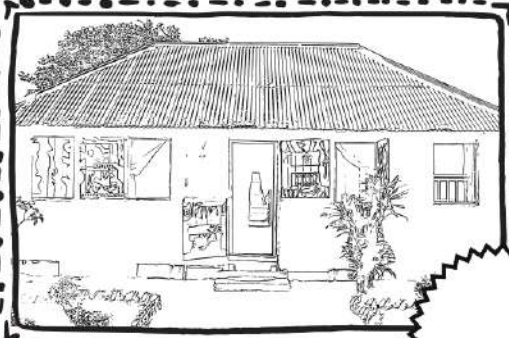

Answer the question below.

Check out this sculpture by artist Yonier Powery. What do you think the fork is made from? Write your idea, then read the wall label to find the correct answer.

National Gallery of the Cayman Islands
Open Monday to Saturday, 10:00AM - 5:00PM | Free Admission
Esterly Tibbetts Highway, George Town, Cayman Islands

MIND'S EYE CENTRE

When Miss Lassie started painting what she saw in her "mind's eye", as she described it, she painted on the walls, windows and ceilings of the house. She transformed her house into a work of art. The Mind's Eye Centre teaches us about art and helps us learn about our history.

 Answer the question below.

What did Miss Lassie like to paint?

Tel: 345-949-5477 Email: programmes@artscayman.org

Draw the Great House

What do you think it looked like when it was first built!

 Answer the question below.

Why is Pedro St. James called the Birthplace of Democracy?

Draw

3 artifacts in the Great House or garden.

Pedro St. James
Open Daily, 8:30 AM - 5:00 PM (last tour at 4:00 PM)
305 Savannah Pedro Castle Road, Cayman Islands

PEDRO ST. JAMES

Pedro St. James is one of the oldest buildings in Cayman and is known as the "Birthplace of Democracy." Over 200 years old, this Great House was much bigger than most homes at the time and was built strong enough to last through storms and history.

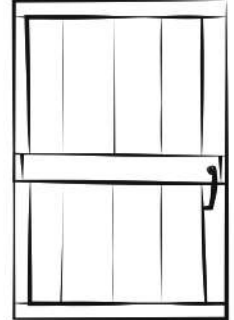

Explore the castle grounds.
Can you find these:

Admission is $2.00 CI (self-guided) from Sunday to Saturday for kids only; parents will pay the resident admission rate.
Tel: 345-947-3329 Email: info@pedrostjames.ky

Design your own Shutters!

Draw your own shutter designs below.

Answer the question below.

What age did Miss Lassie start painting? _____

Spot the Difference

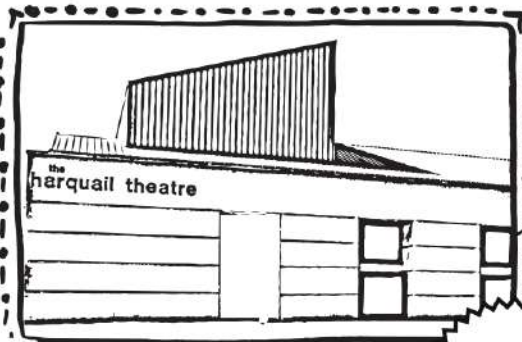

Miss Lassie made her house look unique with her art. Can you spot 3 differences between these two pictures of her house?

CAYMAN NATIONAL CULTURAL FOUNDATION

Mind's Eye Centre 'Miss Lassie's'
Open Monday to Friday, June - August 12:00PM - 3:00PM
4 South Sound Road, George Town, Cayman Islands

F.J. HARQUAIL THEATRE

The Harquail Theatre is our national stage where actors, dancers, and storytellers bring performances to life. It's a place for sharing culture, creativity, and community through the performing arts.

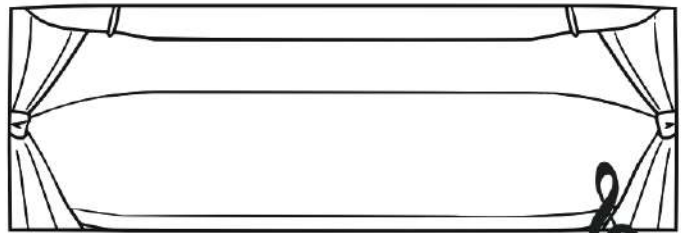

Answer the question below.

What year was the Harquail Theatre built?

Tel: 345-949-5477 Email: programmes@artscayman.org

Draw your favourite character from a story.

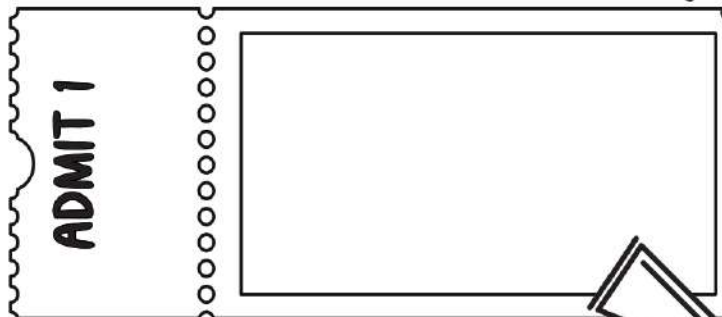

Act it Out on the Harquail Theatre stage.

Who are you pretending to be?

Design a ticket for your own show.

What's the name of it? Who's starring in it?

CAYMAN NATIONAL CULTURAL FOUNDATION

F.J. Harquail Cultural Centre
Open Monday to Friday, 1:00pm - 4:00pm
17 Harquail Drive, George Town, Cayman Islands